

KNOW THE NEWBERY WINNERS

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

Across

- 6 Up on Sarah's Mountain, this "great" main character dreams of a way to save his family from a great danger. (last name only)
- 7 This son of an African king buys his own freedom and works to buy and free other slaves in New England. (first and last name)
- 9 Her lively personality, bright clothes, and a friendship with an outcast Quaker woman get her in trouble with her New England community. (first name only)

Down

- 1 Which author was the first to win two Newbery medals? (Hint: "Onion John" and "...And Now Miguel") (last name only)
- 2 This smaller-than-usual mouse faints at loud noises but gathers the courage to fulfill his dreams.
- 3 This shin-kicking main character's birth certificate says Alice Wexler. What is her animal-inspired nickname?
- 4 In this 2005 medal winner, the Japanese-American Takeshima family moves from Iowa to Georgia in the 1950s. (two words)
- 5 The Academic Bowl team from Epiphany Middle School really likes the view from here.
- 6 She was carved from a block of mountain ash and is a very prolific writer.
- 8 A "plain and tall" woman, she travels from Maine to the midwestern prairie to be a wife and mother.

Reference materials:

2005 Newbery Medal Bookmark, Children's Book Council, New York, NY

The Newbery and Caldecott Awards: A Guide to the Medal and Honor Books, 2004 edition, ALA Editions, Chicago, IL